The student must sign this form before university enrollment can be put on the student's schedule.

Dual Enrollment

1. It is the responsibility of the student to provide an official university transcript of any course taken as dual enrollment.
2. If a student fails to provide a transcript of the course to the school, the school record will show an incomplete on the Transfer Grade form.
3. A dual enrollment course is counted as .5 credit.
4. Bloomfield Hills Schools will only reimburse the post-secondary institution. There is no provision allowing for the reimbursement of a parent, (per Section 21b(3) of the Michigan School Aid Act Compiled).
